NEW HARDWARE STORE OPENED

Three Young Men, Well Versed in Trade, Buy Out Retail Department Goldman & Co.; In New Location February First

Another big hardware store for Phoenix. It is known as the Palace Hardware and Arms Company, and has just been incorporated by three very well known hardware men, Harry Thompson, Charles Lake and Roy McCarthy. The new concern, which is incorporated for $20,000, has purchased the hardware department of Goldman & Co., and will remain at the Goldman location until February first, when it will move to 14-16 West Washington street, next to the Hub clothing store, one of the best retail locations in the city.

Harry Thompson, the president of the company, has a wide acquaintance throughout Arizona, having for some time been the state representative of the Pacific Hardware and Steel Company of San Francisco, and also because of his association as secretary and manager with the Knight-Thomas Commercial Company of Hayden, Charles Lake, who is vice president and treasurer of the company, is the son of Supervisor Frank Lake, and for five years has been connected with the Ezra W.
Thayer hardware store of this city.
The secretary and manager of the company is Roy McCarthy, who since 1902 has been employed by the hardware firm of Talbot & Hubbard.
These three young men because of their wide acquaintanceship and long and varied experience in all departments of the retail and wholesale hardware business, form a combination that should make a success of their business from the very start.
With a big standard stock to begin with, which they have arranged to increase with a number of exclusive and desirable specialty lines, they propose to have one of the most complete and attractive hardware stocks in the state.

HARMON NAMED FOR STATE STOCK BOARD

Brady Resigns and Governor Hunt Names Local Man for Place

Governor Hunt yesterday afternoon appointed Lon R. Harmon of Phoenix member of the state live stock sanitary board in place of R. C. Brady, who had tendered his resignation from the position. It is understood that the latter's resignation had been in the hands of the state's chief executive for a number of weeks, but the governor had been somewhat averse to accepting the same.

Mr. Brady stated that his resignation was due to the fact that his business interests had reached such a point that his personal and undivided attention was necessary to their welfare, and consequently he felt that he could no longer do justice to his state appointive position. Mr. Brady is a resident of the city of Tucson, and has served on the board for a number of years in a most satisfactory manner.
The new member of the board is an extensive land owner in Yavapai county, although his residence is at present in this city. He is head of a local auto agency. The other two members of the board are Messrs. James A.
Johnson and Ide Dedman.

LATE PHOENIX GIRL MARRIED IN KANSAS

the marriage in Hutchinson, Kansas Saturday of Miss Grace Shelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Shelley of Phoenix, Ariz., to Mr. Al-bender Swift of Kansas City, Mo.
The following from an Hutchinson exchange will be of interest to Miss Shelley's many friends in this city where she has made her home for the past five years:

A wedding tonight, which will be interesting to many friends of both the bride and groom is that of Miss Grace Shelley of Phoenix, Ariz., to Mr. Al-bender Swift of Kansas City, Mo. Although the bride has made Phoenix, Ariz. her home for the past five years ple who will be interested in the fact that the friendship began in high school days is to culminate in the wedding tonight. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Shelley of Phoenix, Ariz., and was enroute to Kansas City, Mo., yesterday where the tonight but yesterday the plans were take place instead at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O.

Champion of Sixth avenue west, at nine o'clock. The Champion home will be prettily decorated with red Christmas bells and greenery and while Miss Veda Faye Champion plays the wedding music, the bridal couple will take their places under a large white bell, trimmed with pepper leaves from the bride's home. Here Dr. J. W. Abel of the First Methodist church will read the service. The bride gown is of white silk lace, fashioned over crepe de chine, and she will carry an arm buquet of bridal roses. A two course wedding supper will be served and the

HUNTING IDENTITY OF DESERT VICTIM

Man Murdered Whose Body Was Found Near Morristown May Have Been Either William O'Brien
or Jack Townsend

Following every possible clue that might lead to the identity of the man believed to have been murdered on the desert the seventeenth of this month the county attorney's office has evidence that will probably unravel the mystery.

The man whose body is still being held, may have been William O'Brien whose true name was Hour, according to County Attorney Clyde M. Gandy.
When found dead on the desert five miles from Morrisstown, there was not a card, letter or bit of luggage by which the person could be identified.
So marked was this that it led to the belief that the man was endeavoring to conceal his name. This while said to be a trait of O'Brien who at one time worked for William Neagle of Hockberry and who had also been employed by Graham and Dobson of Wenden. No motive for murder has been discovered.

When a description of the outfit was forwarded E. P. Hart, Santa Fe agent at Wenden, Mr. Gandy said he wished that the man might be Jack Townsend who, last summer, had been on the Agua Fria and disappeared a month ago, and has not been heard from since. A S.
Prescott, a local grocer who knew Townsend and viewed the remains could not be positive and refused to identify him saying that "he might or might not be Townsend."

MANY MADE HAPPY BY SALVATION ARMY

Distributing of Baskets Brings Happiness to Many Poor

To the number of over one hundred, the halt, the lame and the blind appeared at the Salvation Army headquarters yesterday afternoon and there claimed the baskets prepared by that organization for distribution.

The baskets were lashed on a table extending the length of the hall and made an imposing array with their bolting contents of chicken, fresh pork, celery and other vegetables, canned fruits, fresh fruit and last but not least candy for the little ones.

At three o'clock, the hour designated on the tickets given out, a large crowd had gathered at headquarters.
Many of those present looked and acted as if a square meal was a rarity in their lives, but be that as it may, there was one coming for them.

As the clock struck three, Adjutant Shearer announced that all those present who were in the possession of tickets entitling them to a basket should step forward and claim their due. A large crowd rushed started, which nearly took those in attendance off their feet.

The first man to claim a basket was a blind man. Then came several excited, and to back this up a woman who had 11 members in her family, was given an extra large basket, with which to feed all the empty stomachs in her overly large family. Another woman with eight in her family was also given an extra large basket.

While the distribution of the baskets was in progress a large crowd of young Mexican boys stood on the outside and made things merry with their speculations of envy and covetousness, which the unusual display of food stuffs called forth.

The material in all the baskets was brought by the army from contributions made by the people of Phoenix, and with the money taken up in the kettles which have been boiling for the past week or ten days on most every street corner.

Norton, J. M. Stewart, Dr. R. C. Harker, Dr. E. Munson, J. O. Scason, J. D.
Loyer, A. F. Jones, F. D. Lane, A. A.
Bells, C. R. Craig, H. M. Blair.

A great deal of credit is due the committee on arrangements. They were made up of the younger business men of the city who solicited all the baskets and sufficient cash to finance the affair. The committee is headed by William H. Turner generalissimo and head chief, "Bill" as he is familiarly known to all knows just exactly what the boys like and how they like it. The list of the committee follows: William Turner, L. W. Coggins, F. D.
Lane, R. F. Garnett, M. Fichas, George Alkire, C. Donofrio, Dr. Munson, L. R.
Tomlin, J. A. R. Irvine, George Liles, A. T. Eggle, A. C. Taylor.
